LGBTQ+ STUDIES, CERTIFICATE

The LGBTQ+ studies certificate program, housed administratively in the Department of Gender and Women's Studies, is a campuswide program open to students in any major. Courses that count toward this interdisciplinary certificate come from a wide range of fields including literature, history, sociology, medical history, as well as from gender and women's studies, which is in itself an interdisciplinary field. This certificate can complement many other programs and plans across campus, including, but not limited to gender and women's studies. New courses are added to the program each semester. Students are encouraged to check the LGBTQ studies certificate website (https://womenstudies.wisc.edu/certificate-lgbt.htm) regularly for a list of current course offerings by semester.

HOW TO GET IN

Intent to pursue the certificate must be declared by meeting with the LGBTQ+ studies undergraduate advisor (https://womenstudies.wisc.edu/undergrad-advising.htm) as early as possible in the certificate program and before completing requirements.
