Polish, B.A.

Elementary courses in Russian and Polish are designed to meet the needs of students who begin to study the language in college as well as those who began to study the language in high school. One unit (year) of high school coursework is roughly equivalent to one semester of college work; all incoming students, however, who want to continue their study of Russian or Polish are assigned to courses on the basis of placement tests. These tests may admit a student to a more advanced course, but give no credit toward graduation. Students should speak with their instructor regarding retroactive credits during the first week of class.

How to Get In

To declare a major in Polish, students should make an appointment with the undergraduate advisor (atumarki@wisc.edu), or call 608-262-3498.

Distinction in the Major in Polish

With the permission of the Polish honors advisor (atumarki@wisc.edu), students who are not in any of the honors programs may work toward Distinction in the Major in Polish. Distinction in the Major may be granted for any student who has a 3.500 grade point average in the major, and who has submitted an acceptable senior thesis.

Honors in the Polish Major Requirements

To earn a B.A. or B.S. with Honors in the Major in Polish students must satisfy both the requirements for the major (above) and the following additional requirements:

- Earn a 3.300 overall university GPA
- Complete 15 credits in SLAVIC, taken for Honors, with individual course grades of B or better, to include:
  - 9 credits above SLAVIC 208 Fourth Semester Polish, chosen from the following list:
  - SLAVIC 277 Third Year Polish I
  - SLAVIC 278 Third Year Polish II
  - SLAVIC 302 Zarys historii literatury polskiej
  - SLAVIC 331 Fourth Year Polish I
  - SLAVIC 332 Fourth Year Polish II
  - SLAVIC 470 Historia literatury polskiej do roku 1863
  - SLAVIC 472 Historia literatury polskiej po roku 1863

- A two-semester Senior Honors Thesis in SLAVIC 681 Senior Honors Thesis and SLAVIC 682 Senior Honors Thesis, for a total of 6 credits.

1. This requirement may be waived for students who take some of these courses while studying abroad in Poland.
Residency
Degree candidates are required to earn a minimum of 30 credits in residence at UW–Madison. "In residence" means on the UW–Madison campus with an undergraduate degree classification. "In residence" credit also includes UW–Madison courses offered in distance or online formats and credits earned in UW–Madison Study Abroad/Study Away programs.

Quality of Work
Undergraduate students must maintain the minimum grade point average specified by the school, college, or academic program to remain in good academic standing. Students whose academic performance drops below these minimum thresholds will be placed on academic probation.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
1. Polish language proficiency: Students will develop speaking, listening, writing, and reading skills and integrate these skills to communicate in Polish in a variety of social situations.
2. Students will develop and apply writing skills and oral communication skills appropriate to liberal arts education in the context of Slavic studies.
3. Students will develop and apply critical thinking skills inherent in the liberal arts tradition in the context of Slavic studies.
4. Students will be able to analyze and interpret works of literature in themselves and in the context of specific historical and cultural conditions.
5. Students will demonstrate insight into Polish culture and civilization and apply this knowledge across disciplines such as history, political science, the arts, geography, business, economics, sociology, the sciences, gender studies, philosophy, law, folklore.
