HISTORY, B.A.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- 1. Find and interpret diverse evidence to explain complex changes over time
- 2. Communicate effectively to a variety of audiences in writing and speech
- 3. Use an understanding of many perspectives to work with people and solve complex problems
- 4. Seek to understand differing views and ways of being in the world
- 5. Identify the skills developed in the study of history and articulate their applicability to a variety of professional and intellectual endeavors