

AFRO-AMERICAN STUDIES, DOCTORAL MINOR

REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the Ph.D. in other programs may obtain a doctoral minor in Afro-American studies by completing a minimum of 12 graduate credits in the department (<http://guide.wisc.edu/courses/afroamer/>), of which only 3 may be directed-study credits. Three of the 12 credits must be a seminar course. Advance approval by the candidate's major advisor is required for the doctoral minor.

PEOPLE

Faculty: Professors Greene (chair), Adell, Drewal, Plummer, Thornton, Whitmire; Associate Professor Clark-Pujara; Assistant Professors Brown, Davis, Edmonds, Ifatunji