POLICIES

GRADUATE SCHOOL POLICIES
The Graduate School’s Academic Policies and Procedures (https://grad.wisc.edu/acadpolicy/) provide essential information regarding general university policies. Program authority to set degree policies beyond the minimum required by the Graduate School lies with the degree program faculty. Policies set by the academic degree program can be found below.

MAJOR-SPECIFIC POLICIES

PRIOR COURSEWORK

Graduate Work from Other Institutions
With program approval, students may be allowed to count up to 9 credits of graduate coursework from other institutions toward fulfillment of minimum degree and minimum graduate coursework credit requirements. Such coursework from other institutions will not count towards the graduate career GPA. The Graduate School’s minimum graduate residence credit requirement can be satisfied only with courses taken as a graduate student at UW–Madison. Coursework earned five or more years prior to admission to a master’s degree is not allowed to satisfy requirements.

UW–Madison Undergraduate
With program approval, students may be able to count up to 7 credits numbered 300 or above of required or elective courses from the undergraduate work completed at UW–Madison towards fulfillment of minimum degree requirements. However, this work would not be allowed to count toward the 50% graduate coursework minimum unless taken at the 700 level or above with the exception of graduate level courses ART HIST 601 Introduction to Museum Studies I, ART HIST 602 Introduction to Museum Studies II, and L 1 5/ART HIST/HISTORY/Journ 650 History of Books and Print Culture in Europe and North America. This work will not appear on the graduate career portion of UW–Madison transcript nor count towards the graduate career GPA. The Graduate School’s minimum graduate residence credit requirement can be satisfied only with courses taken as a graduate student at UW–Madison.

UW–Madison University Special
With program approval, students are generally allowed only up to 9 credits of coursework numbered 300 or above taken as a UW–Madison University Special student. However, with additional program approval, a student may be allowed to count up to the Graduate School’s maximum of fifteen University Special student credits as fulfillment of the minimum graduate residence, graduate degree, or minor credit requirements.
