

COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY, PH.D.

FUNDING

GRADUATE SCHOOL RESOURCES

Resources to help you afford graduate study might include assistantships, fellowships, traineeships, and financial aid. Further funding information (<https://grad.wisc.edu/funding/>) is available from the Graduate School. Be sure to check with your program for individual policies and restrictions related to funding.

PROGRAM RESOURCES

Incoming PhD students will be guaranteed funding for the 4 years (post-MA) or 5 years (post-BA) they are expected to be on campus to complete the degree. Funding is through a combination of fellowships and graduate assistantships, usually either teaching or research (usually termed "project" assistantships)—either in the Department of Counseling Psychology or in other university departments. Assistantship appointments are at the 50% level (equating to 20 hours per week) for the 9-month academic year. Summer funding is available but not guaranteed.

Department assistantships are assigned through a competitive application process each spring. Admitted students (non-fellows) are included in the process the spring before they start in the program. Students are encouraged to also apply for graduate assistantships outside the department, and most obtain at least some of their support in other departments or units on campus during their time in the program.

Currently, all graduate assistantships and fellowships include tuition remission and health benefits.

FELLOWSHIPS

- Students may be eligible for an Ed-GRS fellowship. Ed-GRS is a community of first-generation students and ethnically underrepresented students who are receiving an Advanced Opportunity Fellowship (AOF) in the School of Education. In addition to tuition remission, monthly stipend, and health care benefits, the program strives to assist our fellows with first-year transition, community building, and professional development opportunities. The department nominates top eligible candidates for Ed-GRS automatically—no additional application materials are needed from the applicant. More information about AOFs can be found on their website (<https://grad.wisc.edu/currentstudents/academics/grs/>).
- Students interested in becoming a Residence Hall House Fellow should view the information available on their website (<https://www.housing.wisc.edu/residencehalls-life-staff.htm>).
- Racial and ethnic minority students are encouraged to apply for the American Psychological Association Minority Fellowship Program. Information is available on their website (<http://www.apa.org/pi/mfp/contact.aspx>).

FINANCIAL AID

Information and application materials for financial aid, loans, scholarships, and student employment may be obtained by contacting the Office of Student Financial Aid (<https://financialaid.wisc.edu/>) at 333 East Campus Mall, Room 9701, Madison, WI 53706, 608-262-3060. International applicants are encouraged to seek other forms of financial assistance as international students are not eligible for loans and scholarships.

Additional information about funding is available on the Counseling Psychology website (<http://counselingpsych.education.wisc.edu/cp/phd-program/funding/>). Questions can be directed to the Student Services Coordinator. See the People tab for contact information.
