The Global Higher Education (GHE) Master’s Degree Program (https://ghe.elpa.education.wisc.edu/) focuses on training new generations of professionals and scholars in the field of international higher education who strive for social justice in a global context.

The Program

• Offers the unique opportunity to study higher education administration and leadership from both an American and international perspective.
• Prepares future leaders and researchers, practitioners and scholars in higher education in an intercultural, transnational context.
• Trains professionals for careers in international higher education (study abroad advising and program management, international student services, and international student recruitment, etc.)
• Prepares individuals with the capacities for critical thinking, problem-solving, data-driven decision making, and communication skills that will enable them to engage with internationalization of higher education, and to strive for social justice in a global context.

Unique Strengths of the Program

• Connect education with careers
• Embedded internship and career development program
• Integrated Professional Development and leadership skill training
• Intensive Advising and career coaching throughout the program
• A family-like collaborative learning community
• Student-centered and individual attention throughout the program
