Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis until the cohort reaches capacity. The final deadline for applying is April 15 for a summer start. In most cases, you will be informed of an admission decision within 3-4 weeks of receiving your completed application.*

M.S. applicants should hold a teaching license and are required to upload the following items to the online application.

1. Essay statement (not to exceed two pages) that addresses the following:

- Describe evidence in your educational practice of your commitment to addressing equity/social justice issues and a desire to lead with a focus on eliminating inequities.
- Describe evidence of your instructional excellence with a range of diverse learners.
- Describe evidence of leadership excellence related to equity and diversity.
- Is there anything else you would like us to know about why you would be an excellent candidate for this program on social justice?

2. Unofficial transcripts. Official transcripts will be requested prior to Graduate School admission.

3. Resume or CV.

4. Supporting document if undergraduate GPA is below 3.00. In statement, explain why GPA does not accurately reflect high potential to serve in leadership roles.

International students are NOT ELIGIBLE for this program.
