Mode of Instruction Definitions

Accelerated: Accelerated programs are offered at a fast pace that condenses the time to completion. Students typically take enough credits aimed at completing the program in a year or two.

Evening/Weekend: Courses meet on the UW–Madison campus only in evenings and/or on weekends to accommodate typical business schedules. Students have the advantages of face-to-face courses with the flexibility to keep work and other life commitments.

Face-to-Face: Courses typically meet during weekdays on the UW–Madison Campus.

Hybrid: These programs combine face-to-face and online learning formats. Contact the program for more specific information.

Online: These programs are offered 100% online. Some programs may require an on-campus orientation or residency experience, but the courses will be facilitated in an online format.

CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

Requirement Detail

Minimum Credit Requirement	30 credits
Minimum Residence Credit Requirement	24 credits
Minimum Graduate Coursework Requirement	15 credits must be graduate-level coursework. Details can be found the Graduate School's Minimum Graduate Coursework (50%) Requirement policy: https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1244 (https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1244/).

Language Requirement: Demonstrate proof of adequate competency in one non-English language by the time of MA degree completion.

¹ These pathways are internal to the program and represent different curricular paths a student can follow to earn this degree. Pathway names do not appear in the Graduate School admissions application, and they will not appear on the transcript.

² Of the 18 elective credits, at least six credits must be numbered 700-799 and at least three credits in coursework numbered 900-999.

³ The MA pathway, English Language and Linguistics, is effective for students admitted Fall 2025 and after. Students admitted to the terminal MA pathway, Applied English Linguistics, prior to Fall 2025 will adhere to the same curricular requirements with the addition of the final comprehensive exam. The MA pathway in Applied English Linguistics will discontinue with the current cohort and those admitted to the pathway starting Fall 2024.

Literary Studies Pathway ¹

All courses for this pathway must be completed in English (ENGL (<http://guide.wisc.edu/courses/engl/>)) graduate level courses as specified below.

Students take a total of ten courses in the Department of English.

To ensure breadth of knowledge, the course requirements call for intensive study in different chronological and geographical areas. These requirements must be completed before the beginning of the fifth semester. When the first stage requirements are completed, provided the student meets the program standards for satisfactory progress, he or she will be entitled to move into the second stage of the PhD program.

1. Two graduate-only courses in literatures in the English Department, one pre-1800 and one post-1800 in content.
2. ENGL 800 Critical Methods in Literary Studies taken during the first semester of residence because of its general applicability to all scholarly work in literature.
3. One of two courses: ENGL 700 Introduction to Composition Studies or ENGL/MEDIEVAL 520 Old English
4. An English graduate-level course that focuses on topics of race, ethnicity and/or indigeneity
5. Five additional graduate seminars.
6. Competency in non-English language in at least an adequate proficiency.

Note: Up to a total of 9 credits of this MA and/or PhD coursework may come from UW programs or departments outside of English.
