BUSINESS: FINANCE, INVESTMENT, AND BANKING: APPLIED SECURITY ANALYSIS, M.S.

This is a named option in the Business: Finance, Investment, and Banking, M.S. (http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/finance/business-finance-investment-banking-ms/). The Applied Security Analysis Program (ASAP) at the Wisconsin School of Business was founded in 1970 by Professor Stephen L. Hawk. Over 700 students have graduated from the program. Each graduate enters the investment community with the unique educational experience of learning the investment business through hands-on management of real portfolios. Beginning with $100,000 in 1970, students now manage over $25 million in equities and fixed-income assets. The program is proud to be a pioneer among student-managed investment programs and a CFA Program® Partner.

ADMISSIONS

Applications to the program are accepted at any time, with rolling windows of consideration. However, applications received during any academic year and prior to March 15 are given priority for entry into the program in the following fall semester. If you apply after March 15, you may be placed on a wait list.

The ASAP named option can be earned as an MS or MBA degree. This page describes the admission process for the MS degree. If you seek the MBA degree, please see the admissions information for the FT MBA (https://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/finance/business-finance-investment-banking-mba/business-finance-investment-banking-applied-security-analysis-mba/#admissionstext).

If you apply to ASAP as an undergraduate (UG) student at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and are accepted to the program, you will complete your senior year, earning your UG degree, and then complete a fifth year of study, earning the MS degree. You are not required to submit scores for graduate exams such as the GMAT or the GRE. If you are not a student at UW-Madison, you must submit as a part of your application: (i) scores for either the GMAT or the GRE exam, or (ii) evidence that you have passed the Level I Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) exam.

All prerequisite courses are waived for applicants who have passed the CFA Exam 1. Otherwise, applicants must have completed courses equivalent to the required prerequisites and must submit for evaluation their transcripts of grades and documentation (course syllabi) describing the equivalent courses. The ASAP Academic Director will establish equivalencies. Credits earned by completing the prerequisites do not count toward the MS degree. Six credits of undergraduate coursework (FINANCE 645 and FINANCE 646) may count towards the MS degree.

As an applicant to ASAP you will be evaluated on your academic credentials, work experience, personal achievements, motivation, both written and oral communication skills, your international exposure, letters of recommendation, and if you are not undergraduate students at UW-Madison, your test scores.

Importantly, ASAP seeks individuals with a strong desire and commitment to learn the applied science of security analysis and portfolio management. You can demonstrate your commitment in your application in numerous ways. Some of these are to provide evidence of: (i) passage of the first-level Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) exam, (ii) a facility with applied financial modeling, (iii) prior coursework in investments, security analysis, and financial accounting, (iv) active participation in an investment club (such as the Capital Management Club at the UW-Madison), (v) experience as either an intern or full-time employee in an asset-management company, and/or (vi) a desire and willingness to compete in activities such as competitive sports and games.

Note: All applicants whose native language is not English must submit scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the Pearson Test of English (PTE), Intensive English as a Second Language (IELTS), or show completion of an Interlink program. A minimum iBT TOEFL score of 100 or equivalent, obtained within two years of the intended start term, is required. International applicants who have completed a degree at an institution whose primary language of instruction was English may request a waiver of this requirement on the application.

HOW TO APPLY

Students interested in business degrees do not apply through the Graduate School application system and should instead refer to the School of Business Admissions page. (https://admissions.wsb.wisc.edu/MSinFinance/)

Any student who feels that they have been mistreated by a faculty or staff member has the right to lodge a complaint. Complaints may concern course grades, classroom treatment, program admission, or other issues. To ensure a prompt and fair hearing of any complaint and to protect both the student’s rights and the person at whom the complaint is addressed, the grievance procedures below are used in the Wisconsin School of Business.

The person whom the complaint is directed against must be an employee of the School of Business. Any student or potential student may use these procedures unless other campus rules or contracts cover the complaint:

1. If the student feels comfortable/safe doing so, the student should first talk with the person against whom the grievance is directed. Most issues can be settled at this level. If the complaint is directed against a teaching assistant (TA) and the student is not satisfied after discussion of the grievance with the TA, the next step would be to talk to the TA’s supervisor, who is usually the course professor. If the complaint is still not resolved satisfactorily, the student may continue to step 2.

2. If the complaint involves an academic department, the student should contact the chair of the department. The chair will attempt to resolve the problem informally. If this cannot be done to the student’s satisfaction, the student may submit the grievance to the chair in writing. This must be done within 60 calendar days of the alleged unfair treatment.
   a. If the complaint does not involve an academic department, the procedure outlined in Step 4 below should be followed.

3. On receipt of a written complaint, the chair will refer the matter to a departmental committee, which will obtain a written response from the person at whom the complaint is directed. This response shall be shared with the person filing the grievance. The chair will provide a written decision within 30 days to the student on the action taken by the committee.

4. If either party is not satisfied with the decision, they have five working days from receipt of the decision to contact the dean’s office (at the number below), indicating the intention to appeal. If the complaint does not involve an academic department in the school, the student must contact the dean’s office within 60 calendar days of the alleged unfair treatment.

5. In either case, there will be an attempt to resolve the issue informally by the appropriate associate dean. If this cannot be done, the complaint can be filed in writing with the Office of the Dean. This must be done within 10 working days of the time the appealing party was notified that informal resolution was unsuccessful.

6. On receipt of such a written complaint, the Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer will convene a subcommittee of relevant stakeholders pending the nature of the issue. This subcommittee may ask for additional information from the parties involved and may hold a hearing at which both parties will be asked to speak separately. The subcommittee will then make a written recommendation to the dean of the School of Business who will render a decision. Unless a longer time is negotiated, this written decision shall be made within 20 working days from when the grievance was filed with the Office of the Dean.

Questions about these procedures can be directed to the School of Business, Office of the Dean, 4339 Grainger, 975 University Avenue, 608-262-7867.

State law contains additional provisions regarding discrimination and harassment. Wisconsin Statutes 36.12 reads, in part: "No student may be denied admission to, participation in or the benefits of, or be discriminated against in any service, program, course or facility of the system or its institutions or center because of the student's race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, disability, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, pregnancy, marital status or parental status." In addition, UW–System prohibits discrimination based on gender identity or gender expression. Students have the right to file discrimination and harassment complaints with the Office of Compliance, 361 Bascom Hall, 608-265-6018, uwcomplianceoffice@wisc.edu.

The Graduate School has procedures for students wishing to appeal a grievance decision at the school/college level. These policies are described in the Graduate School's Academic Policies and Procedures: https://grad.wisc.edu/documents/grievances-and-appeals/
