

FRENCH STUDIES: FRENCH STUDIES SUMMER INSTITUTE, MFS

Admissions to the French Studies: French Studies Summer Institute, MFS have been suspended as of summer 2022 and will be discontinued as of fall 2024. If you have any questions, please contact the department.

This is a named option in the French Studies MFS. (<http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/french-italian/french-studies-mfs/>)

The Professional French Studies Summer Institute program teaches interdisciplinary skills needed to operate in professional French settings around the world—this is particularly important to teachers, who collaborate with each other in the program as they hone their connections to those cultures and practices. Teachers intern in all fields, not just education, and are among the most connected colleagues in their schools to the "real world" using their French.

The Summer Studies Institute program is the Professional French Masters Program's part-time pathway to the degree, for working French teachers. Our program is a part-time hybrid program with online and face-to-face components. You will update your sense of current events in the French-speaking world, improve your speaking and writing, solidify your grammar and style, and intern in French in a professional setting—in a personalized internship in the final summer.

• STEP 1: GRADUATE SCHOOL APPLICATION

- Graduate School Application (online) (<https://apply.grad.wisc.edu/Account/Login/?ReturnUrl=%2f>)
Note: For this program, select "French Studies, MFS," not "French MA."
Note: the application will ask you to list 3 people who will write letters of recommendation for you. At least one of the letters should address your overall proficiency, creativity, and style of expression in the French language. These may be professors, instructors, supervisors, or anyone who is familiar with your work and may give us a sense of your readiness for our program.
Note: the CV you submit must be in English. You may also submit a French-language version, but this is not required.
- Application fee (waived for current and former TAPIF participants)
- GRE Scores (<http://www.ets.org/gre/>) UW-Madison's institution code is 1846.
- For international students whose native language is not English: IELTS or TOEFL scores. (All international applicants must also pay a one-time processing fee.)

STEP 2: PROGRAM INFORMATION

As you are filling out your Graduate School Application, you will be asked to complete a "Supplemental Application." This allows you to upload information required specifically by the Professional French Masters Program:

A writing sample in French (i.e., a graded undergraduate term paper)
Your statement of purpose (1 page, in French).

What is your chosen concentration area, and how do you expect it, and the French Studies MFS in general, to position you for a more satisfying professional life? If you have experience working or studying in your chosen concentration area, please elaborate; otherwise, tell us why you would like to move in this direction now. Although you may use dictionaries and other resources, we trust that this statement will be written without assistance. NOTE: in most cases, we will schedule an oral interview in French, either in person or by telephone.
