GRADUATE SCHOOL RESOURCES

Resources to help you afford graduate study might include assistantships, fellowships, traineeships, and financial aid. Further funding information (https://grad.wisc.edu/funding/) is available from the Graduate School. Be sure to check with your program for individual policies and restrictions related to funding.

PROGRAM RESOURCES

Students working toward the MFS degree are enrolled in the Professional French Master's Program (https://pfmp.wisc.edu/). Professional French Master's Program students may apply for financial aid (https://financialaid.wisc.edu/) and are automatically considered for a number of small private scholarships. They often work part-time, and professional internships sometimes come with small stipends. PFMP students are not eligible for teaching or research assistantships that cover tuition. However, all PFMP students pay the same per-credit tuition (https://pfmp.wisc.edu/how-much-does-the-pfmp-cost/).
