Graduate School Policies
The Graduate School’s Academic Policies and Procedures (https://grad.wisc.edu/acadpolicy/) provide essential information regarding general university policies. Program authority to set degree policies beyond the minimum required by the Graduate School lies with the degree program faculty. Policies set by the academic degree program can be found below.

Major-Specific Policies

Prior Coursework
Graduate Credits Earned at Other Institutions
Students are allowed to transfer no more than 13 credits of prior graduate coursework from other institutions if applicable to program requirements. Coursework earned ten years or more prior to admission to a doctoral degree is not allowed to satisfy requirements.

Undergraduate Credits Earned at Other Institutions or UW-Madison
No credits from a UW-Madison undergraduate degree are allowed to count toward the PhD degree.

Credits Earned as a Professional Student at UW-Madison (Law, Medicine, Pharmacy, and Veterinary careers)
Refer to the Graduate School: Transfer Credits for Prior Coursework (https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1216/) policy.

Credits Earned as a University Special Student at UW-Madison
With program approval, students are allowed to transfer no more than 15 credits of coursework numbered 600 or above taken as a UW-Madison University Special student. Coursework earned ten years or more prior to admission to a doctoral degree is not allowed to satisfy requirements.

Probation
Students admitted on probation must maintain a GPA of at least 3.50 in graduate work done during each of their first two full-time semesters or the equivalent at this university, otherwise they will be dropped from the program. After performing satisfactorily during the probation period, students are expected to perform as well as students granted admission in full standing.

Current students should refer to the Graduate School: Probation (https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1217/) policy.

Advisor / Committee
Students joining the program with an MA degree will either be advised by the department graduate advisor (DGA) and choose their individual advisor before the end of their second semester of coursework in consultation with the department graduate advisor (DGA) or be assigned an individual advisor when they enter the program. The individual advisor will be the chair of the PhD preliminary examination committee and the dissertation committee.

Credits per Term Allowed
15 credits

Time Limits
PhD candidates should take the two-hour oral preliminary examination no sooner than upon completion of the second semester of the PhD coursework and may take it no later than three weeks after the beginning of the fifth full-time semester (or its equivalent) after the MA.

Refer to the Graduate School: Time Limits (https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1221/) policy.
