

MEDIEVAL STUDIES, DOCTORAL MINOR

The Minor in Medieval Studies is of interest and use to graduate students seeking to study the Middle Ages in a way that would complement and deepen their study of history, language, literature, art, etc. The program will allow these students to gather the broadly interdisciplinary coursework outside the student's home department or program into a meaningful credential that appears on their transcript.

ADMISSIONS

A student should declare their interest to the Director of the Medieval Studies Program before beginning coursework required for the minor. See Contact Box for Director information.

The following constraints should be taken into consideration when selecting courses:

- Only courses that carry the "Graduate 50%" attribute may be used to meet program requirements.
- To ensure that students achieve interdisciplinarity in their studies, courses must be selected from at least two different subject listings.
- To ensure breadth of study beyond a student's focused doctoral research, courses must be selected from subject listings offered outside the student's home department or program.
