This is a named option within the Master of Science Information.

The master's degree at the Information School (iSchool) prepares graduates to develop, provide, and assess information and data services that create, collect, organize, store, analyze, find, distribute, and use information and data in a diverse, technological, and global society. The program prepares information professionals to work in three broad, overlapping areas of the information professions.

User Experience Design: Graduates obtain employment in user experience design, interaction design, usability testing, systems analysis and project management, IT training, educational technology support, digital asset management and curation, and content management.

Data Analytics: Graduates obtain employment as data analysts in a variety of fields with expertise in analyzing data to support organizational decision-making, planning and managing data-driven projects, visualization and communication of analysis and results, data policy issues, and ensuring that organizational data practices support analysis activities.

Data and Information Management: Graduates obtain employment specializing in management of data and information in a variety of organizations with expertise in knowledge management, digital asset management, data and information governance, prospect research, systems analysis, records management and compliance, research data management and project management, and database development and management.

Full-time students generally complete the program in two academic years with summer work; part-time students complete it in three to four years. Students gain hands-on experience as part of their degree through the school’s required internship. Students may choose internship settings based on their career goals.

ADMISSIONS

Please consult the table below for key information about this degree program's admissions requirements. The program may have more detailed admissions requirements, which can be found below the table or on the program’s website.

Graduate admissions is a two-step process between academic programs and the Graduate School. Applicants must meet the minimum requirements (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/) of the Graduate School as well as the program(s). Once you have researched the graduate program(s) you are interested in, apply online (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/).

CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

Requirement Detail

Minimum Credit Requirement

Minimum Residence Credit Requirement

Minimum Graduate Coursework Requirement

Half of degree coursework (15 credits out of 30 total credits) must be completed graduate-level coursework; courses with the Graduate Level Coursework attribute are identified and searchable in the university’s Course Guide (https://registrar.wisc.edu/course-guide/).

Overall

Graduate GPA Requirement

3.00 GPA required.

Other Grade Requirements

Within the student’s total program, one grade of BC or C is allowable in either a required or elective course if it is balanced by a grade of A or AB earned either prior to or concurrently with the unsatisfactory grade. Students receiving a BC or C move into probationary status. A second grade of BC or C or any grade of D or F will normally result in the student being dropped from the program. In addition, a student’s graduate-program cumulative grade point average must be maintained at 3.00 or above.

Assessments and Examinations

No formal examination is required.

Language Requirements

None.

Breadth Requirement in Ethics

All students must complete at least three credits in ethics from the list below.

LIS 461 Data and Algorithms: Ethics and Policy (recommended)

LIS 661 Information Ethics and Policy

Concentrations

At least 9 credits must be taken from among the following approved courses organized by concentration area. Students may mix and match approved courses from across the two different areas.

Concentration Area: User Experience/Interaction Design

LIS/COMP SCI 611 User Experience Design 1

LIS/COMP SCI 612 User Experience Design 2

LIS/COMP SCI 613 User Experience Design 3

LIS/COMP SCI 614 User Experience Design Capstone

Concentration Area: Analytics and Data Management

LIS 706 Data Mining Planning and Management

LIS 707 Data Visualization and Communication for Decision Making

LIS 711 Data Management for Information Professionals

Electives

Up to 3 credits of electives may be taken from the below approved online course list.

LIS 500 Code and Power

LIS/NURSING/OCC THER 517 Digital Health: Information and Technologies Supporting Consumers and Patients

LIS 616 Records Management

LIS 632 Metadata Standards and XML

LIS/LEGAL ST 645 Intellectual Freedom

LIS 646 Introduction to Info Architecture and Interaction Design for the Web
LIS 658  Publishing, Knowledge Institutions and Society: E-Revolutions?  30

Total Credits  30

These tracks are internal to the program and represent different pathways a student can follow to earn this degree. Track names do not appear in the Graduate School admissions application, and they will not appear on the transcript.

Contingent on advisor approval, up to 6 credits of coursework from outside the MS Information approved course list can be taken from other UW–Madison departments while the student is matriculated in the MS Information program.

MA Library and Information Studies Transfers

The program would accept up to 10 credits (1 semester) from students who begin the MA program but then seek to change to the MS Information program. Courses from outside the MS Information approved course list are subject to approval by the advisor and must not exceed the 9 elective credits allowed within the program.

Students switching between the MS Information degree and the MA Library and Information Studies degree must switch by the end of their first semester (for part time students = 10 credits). Students moving from a lower cost program to the MS program will be required to pay the difference in tuition in order to have the courses count toward the MS degree. In the case of a move from a higher to a lower cost program, the difference in tuition will not be refunded.

POLICIES

GRADUATE SCHOOL POLICIES

The Graduate School’s Academic Policies and Procedures (https://grad.wisc.edu/acadpolicy/) provide essential information regarding general university policies. Program authority to set degree policies beyond the minimum required by the Graduate School lies with the degree program faculty. Policies set by the academic degree program can be found below.

NAMED OPTION-SPECIFIC POLICIES

PRIOR COURSEWORK

Graduate Work from Other Institutions
The program will not accept credits taken outside of UW–Madison to be used toward the degree.

UW–Madison Undergraduate
The program will allow up to 3 credits of approved MS Information or computer science coursework taken as an undergraduate to be counted toward the degree. The coursework must be from the approved MS curriculum, or approved by an Information School advisor.

UW–Madison University Special
The program will accept up to 10 credits from the iSchool capstone certificate in Digital User Experience Design (UX) or Analytics for Decision Making Capstone Certificate programs, if those credits were earned within 5 years of admission to the MS degree. All credits must be part of the UX or Analytics certificates.

In cases where students move from a lower cost program to the MS program, students will be required to pay the difference in tuition in order to have the lower cost earned credits count toward the MS degree.

The program will allow a maximum of 3 LIS credits from the approved MS Information course list, to be completed as a non-matriculated special student before entry into the program. Special students entering the MS Information must pay the tuition differential on the 3 credits in order for the course to count toward their MS Information degree requirements.

PROBATION

Registration is not a guarantee of enrollment under conditions of unsatisfactory progress. Students who fall into unsatisfactory progress will have an academic hold placed on their record; they should discuss clearing the hold with their adviser.

1. Good standing: progressing according to standards.
2. Probation: not progressing according to standards but permitted to enroll; potential loss of scholarships.
3. Unsatisfactory progress: not progressing according to standards; not permitted to enroll, dismissal, leave of absence.

A student may be placed on probation or suspended from the Graduate School for low grades or for failing to resolve incompletes in a timely fashion. In special cases the Graduate School permits students who do not meet these minimum standards to continue on probation upon recommendation and support of their advisor. See iSchool Student Handbook. (https://ischool.wisc.edu/current-students/ma-requirements-overview/ma-program-planning-guides/)

ADVISOR / COMMITTEE

All continuing students are required to meet with the staff advisor prior to registering for each semester in order to remove registration holds and ensure timely progress towards degree completion. Students may switch advisors at any time by completing a change of advisor form.

CREDITS PER TERM ALLOWED

15 credits (however, 12 credits are highly encouraged)

TIME CONSTRAINTS

The maximum period for completion of the M.S. (under special circumstances) is seven calendar years. Contact the department for more information.

Master’s degree students who have been absent for five or more consecutive years lose all credits that they have earned before their absence. Individual programs may count the coursework students completed prior to their absence for meeting program requirements; that coursework may not count toward Graduate School credit requirements.
