The Minor in Print Culture History is an interdisciplinary program functioning under the University of Wisconsin–Madison Graduate School's Option A rules (see the Graduate School Catalog, Minors) (http://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/#doctoralminorstext). To qualify, students will need written approval from their major advisor and from the director of the Doctoral Minor in Print Culture History.