The Master of Arts–Business: Arts and Creative Enterprise Leadership at the University of Wisconsin–Madison is a one-year program where students gain the knowledge, skills, and expertise to be an innovative arts administrator, nonprofit executive, or social entrepreneur. The business-focused curriculum utilizes hands-on learning and project work in the classroom, as well as applied field experiences in local arts organizations. Throughout the yearlong experience, students connect with and learn from real-world arts leaders and are part of a strong, close-knit community of alumni and arts practitioners.

The Arts and Creative Enterprise Leadership master’s program is part of the Bolz Center for Arts Administration (https://business.wisc.edu/centers/bolz/)—one of the only arts-focused programs within a U.S. business school, giving students an edge as strategic leaders.

Please see the program website (https://business.wisc.edu/graduate/masters/arts-leadership/) for more information and application instructions.
