Please consult the table below for key information about this degree program’s admissions requirements. The program may have more detailed admissions requirements, which can be found below the table or on the program’s website.

Graduate admissions is a two-step process between academic programs and the Graduate School. Applicants must meet the minimum requirements (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/) of the Graduate School as well as the program(s). Once you have researched the graduate program(s) you are interested in, apply online (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/).

English Proficiency Test: Every applicant whose native language is not English, or whose undergraduate instruction was not exclusively in English, must provide an English proficiency test score earned within two years of the anticipated term of enrollment. Refer to the Graduate School: Minimum Requirements for Admission policy: https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1241 (https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1241/).

Other Test(s) (e.g., GMAT, MCAT): n/a

Letters of Recommendation: Required

Applicants are expected to have a BS in the physical sciences or engineering. Undergraduate studies normally would include mathematics through differential equations, at least one year each of general physics and chemistry, a course in physical chemistry or modern physics, and an elementary course in properties of materials. Applicants may be admitted with deficiencies. These must be made up as soon as possible after entering the program.

APPLICATION

Required application materials:

- Academic transcripts (unofficial)
- English proficiency scores (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/#english-proficiency), if applicable
- Three letters of recommendation

Admission to the University of Wisconsin–Madison Graduate School (http://grad.wisc.edu/) is a prerequisite for admission to study materials science. A minimum GPA of 3.0/4.0 is required. Admission is highly selective. Most admitted applicants have an undergraduate GPA above 3.5. However, full consideration will be given to all applicants meeting the UW–Madison Graduate School requirements.

Use the online application (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/) to begin your application. All documents should be uploaded with your application. To be considered for fellowships, all application materials are due by the fall deadline.

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

International degree-seeking applicants must prove English proficiency using the Graduate School’s requirements (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/).

FEE GRANTS

The Graduate School offers a limited number of application fee grants (waives all or part of the application fee) that are available in a few specific circumstances. Further information is available on the “Applying for a Fee Grant (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/fee-grant/)” page.
