Please consult the table below for key information about this degree program's admissions requirements. The program may have more detailed admissions requirements, which can be found below the table or on the program's website.

Graduate admissions is a two-step process between academic programs and the Graduate School. Applicants must meet the minimum requirements (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/) of the Graduate School as well as the program(s). Once you have researched the graduate program(s) you are interested in, apply online (https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/).

APPLICATION PROCESS

To ensure full consideration for admission into the Master of Science in Clinical Nutrition, it is strongly recommended that applications be completed by the deadlines noted above. Applications received after their respective priority deadlines will be considered as space permits. Review of applications for admissions are reviewed immediately after respective deadlines, and applicants can usually expect to be notified a month after deadlines.

Steps to apply are listed below:

1. Complete a UW–Madison Graduate School Electronic Application.

The electronic application includes:

a. Reasons for Graduate Study. Please include a brief statement about your professional goals, and reasons for applying.

b. Letters of Recommendation. Three letters of recommendation are required. All letters of recommendation are submitted electronically through the admission application.

c. TOEFL scores, if necessary.

d. Unofficial transcript, submitted electronically into the application.

e. Supplemental Application. This component of the application asks applicants to identify the courses taken to fulfill the prerequisite coursework.

2. Be sure to closely follow the Steps to Apply for Graduate School (https://grad.wisc.edu/admissions/process/) and watch your application status page through MyUW (http://my.wisc.edu/) for missing checklist items or additional information.

For any questions or if you need additional information please go over the Graduate Admissions FAQ (https://grad.wisc.edu/admissions/faq/), or send an email to the graduate program coordinator: Katie Butzen, kbutzen@wisc.edu.
