FUNDING

GRADUATE SCHOOL RESOURCES

Resources to help you afford graduate study might include assistantships, fellowships, traineeships, and financial aid. Further funding information (<https://grad.wisc.edu/funding/>) is available from the Graduate School. Be sure to check with your program for individual policies and restrictions related to funding.

PROGRAM RESOURCES

IGPNS students receive a full stipend, as well as tuition remission and comprehensive health insurance. The stipends take the form of traineeship, research assistantships, or fellowships and are guaranteed for all IGPNS Ph.D. candidates in good standing. The application for the IGPNS program is also the application for funding. IGPNS will also assist students in competing for UW and/or national funding awards (e.g. NIH, NSF, etc.)
