Accepted students commonly have strong scientific backgrounds and a desire to work in the biopharmaceutical industry. Students with undergraduate degrees in the physical or biological sciences, engineering, pharmacy, and related fields are encouraged to apply. Applicants without a bachelor's degree may still be considered for admittance with an earned Doctor of Pharmacy or other professional graduate degree.

Applicants must complete an online application (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/>) that includes the following:

- unofficial transcripts from any previously completed undergraduate and graduate degrees,
- contact information for two individuals to submit letters of recommendation,
- statement of purpose, and
- resume or curriculum vitae.
