This is a combined MS degree and post-graduate residency training program. Thus, two applications must be submitted. Applicants without a bachelor's degree may still be considered for admittance with an earned Doctor of Pharmacy or other professional graduate degree.

The first is through the standard Pharmacy Online Residency Centralized Application Service (PhORCAS). For additional details of this application process, see the area regarding "pharmacy administrative residency--applying to the program" on the UW Health website (<http://www.uwhealth.org/health-professionals/internships/pharmacy-administrative-residency/applying/31924/>). Applications are due in early January; the exact date will be listed on the PhORCAS website.

The second application is for the MS Pharmacy and is submitted to the UW Graduate School, with an application deadline of April 1. Only those who are selected for the residency program through the PhORCAS application should apply for this program.

The program begins in mid-June and M.S. coursework begins in early September.

Applications are not reviewed at any other time during the year.

Applicants to the M.S. program must be eligible for licensure as a
