Admission to the MS Pharmacy Program is only accessed through the ASHP Residency Match. Initial applications should be entered through the Pharmacy Online Residency Centralized Application Service (PhORCAS). See instructions below.

This is a combined MS degree and post-graduate residency training program. Thus, two applications must be submitted. Applicants without a bachelor's degree may still be considered for admittance with an earned Doctor of Pharmacy or other professional graduate degree.

1. Pharmacy Online Residency Centralized Application Service (PhORCAS)
 - a. Applications are due in early January; the exact date will be listed on the PhORCAS website.
 - b. For additional details of this application process, see the area regarding "pharmacy administrative residency--applying to the program" on the UW Health website (<http://www.uwhealth.org/health-professionals/internships/pharmacy-administrative-residency/applying/31924/>).
2. UW-Madison Graduate School and MS Pharmacy
 - a. See the above table for application due date.
 - b. Only those selected for the residency program through the PhORCAS application may apply for this program.

- c. Applications are not reviewed at any other time during the year.
- d. Applicants to the MS program must be eligible for licensure as a pharmacist in Wisconsin due to the program's pharmacy residency requirements.

The program begins in mid-June and MS coursework begins in early September.
