Social Welfare, Doctoral Minor

Requirements

Doctoral students outside the school are invited to consider the minor in social welfare. The 9-credit minor requires three doctoral-level courses from the School of Social Work. One must be a Social Policy Seminar (SOC WORK 950 PhD Proseminar), one must be an Applied Theory Seminar (SOC WORK 951 PhD Proseminar), and the third can be a 3-credit social work doctoral course of the student's choosing (which could be another SOC WORK 950 PhD Proseminar or SOC WORK 951 PhD Proseminar seminar).

People

Professors: Lawrence M. Berger, MSW, Ph.D.; Marah H. Curtis, MSW, Ph.D.; Katherine Magnuson, Ph.D.; Stephanie A. Robert, MSW, Ph.D. (School director); Tracy Schroepfer, MSW, Ph.D.; Kristen Slack, A.M., Ph.D.

Associate Professors: Lauren Bishop, MSW, Ph.D.; Tally Moses, MSW, Ph.D.; Marci Ybarra, MSW, Ph.D.

Faculty Affiliates: Judi Bartfeld, BS, Ph.D; John Eason, M.P.P, Ph.D.

A complete list of all faculty and staff in the school is available on the School of Social Work Directory (https://socwork.wisc.edu/directory/).