Other Test(s) (e.g., GMAT, MCAT)	n/a
Letters of Recommendation Required	3

This program is designed for individuals to finish their academic career with an MA and for those who decide to pursue the PhD. Its general, non-specialized approach is beneficial to both types.

Applicants must have an undergraduate degree in Spanish, an undergraduate GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, and a GPA in Spanish courses of at least 3.25. Exceptions to these requirements may be made by the admissions committee.

Admitted applicants will be asked to supply supplementary information regarding courses taken previously, experience abroad, scope of readings in Spanish and Spanish-American literatures, and preparation in linguistics.

All new admitted applicants will write a sample essay during the orientation week of their first semester of study. If the department determines that an admitted applicant needs to improve their written Spanish, they will be asked to meet several times during the semester with their selected advisor to work on composition skills.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION FOR MA APPLICATIONS

- Three letters of recommendation are required for all graduate student applicants, using the Graduate School's online application.

- Unofficial transcripts from each institution attended. International academic records must be in the original language accompanied by an official English translation. Official transcripts will only be requested by the Graduate School upon program recommendation for admission.
- Reason for Graduate Study/Statement of Purpose: What are your reasons for graduate study? Please describe your current degree goals and your reasons for selecting your program(s). Your statement can be either in English or Spanish. It should not exceed three single-spaced pages, or the equivalent when double-spaced.
