

LAW, LLM

The Master of Laws–Legal Institutions (LL.M.–LI) degree program is a course–based Master’s degree program in law for students who have received a law degree, such as an LL.B., from a university outside of the United States. The LL.M.–LI degree is a program for students who want to learn about American law and common law analysis. Note: the ‘LL.M.–LI’ Degree is in process of transitioning to its name to simply LL.M., but will continue to be course–based and thus distinguishable from our research–based LL.M.

Visit our webpage (<https://law.wisc.edu/grad/llm-sjd/>) for more information about the LL.M.–LI Degree Program and admissions requirements.
