

TRADITIONAL TRACK

The Traditional VISP Track (<https://visp.wisc.edu/>), welcomes nondegree international students for short-term study on our campus. VISP participants are admitted as University Special students to take UW-Madison coursework.

Traditional VISP track students select courses offered across the offerings at UW-Madison. Depending on course availability, students can choose to focus on one or two academic areas or try courses in several departments to create the right schedule for them.