

VISITING INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

UW–Madison welcomes international undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate students to study at UW–Madison for one or more terms as a University Special student. University Special students take regularly scheduled courses for credit, which are displayed on an official student record but are not currently earning a degree from UW–Madison.

The Visiting International Student Program (VISP) is available to international students who wish to study at UW–Madison for one or more semesters or a summer term and are not part of a formal exchange program. The VISP participants are admitted by ACSSS. Details about the program, admissions criteria, and student experience are provided on the VISP webpage (<https://visp.wisc.edu/>).
