

BUSINESS LEADERSHIP, CERTIFICATE

The undergraduate certificate in business leadership provides business students with the opportunity to further develop leadership competencies and skills that are critical to any career path. It allows for a lot of flexibility so that students can customize their coursework to best align with their career interests.