BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION: MARKETING, BBA

If you’re a strategic thinker and a creative problem-solver, then advancing in a career in marketing could be a good choice for you. Marketing is a diverse field that involves in-demand skills desired by top employers, large and small. It’s also a growing field, particularly in the digital realm. Successful marketers will be analytical, creative and know how to leverage technology.

The UW–Madison Online BBA in Marketing provides a robust foundation in business. From the highly ranked Wisconsin School of Business, you will gain valuable skills in communication, collaboration, creativity, relationship building and planning. You will learn to implement strategies related to product, place/distribution, price and promotion; analyze market segments and generate effective plans; leverage relevant sources to determine and support marketing actions; and apply analytical rigor to decisions.

Graduates pursue a variety of careers in marketing, including brand/product management, marketing research/analytics, sales management, advertising, business-to-business marketing, digital and social media, consulting, and supply chain management. You could be a product manager, social media strategist or market research analyst, among other dynamic jobs.

2. Locate, evaluate, and leverage relevant sources to determine and support their marketing actions.
3. Demonstrate the ability to formulate and implement marketing strategies related to product, place/distribution, price, promotion.
4. Demonstrate the ability to evaluate and analyze appropriate market segments and generate effective marketing plans.

FOUR-YEAR PLAN

This program is designed for transfer students, most of whom will enroll on a part-time basis. As such, there is not a four-year plan for this program. Please refer to the Requirements tab for more information about the curriculum and program plan.

ADVISING AND CAREERS

ACCESSING ADVISING
Each UW-Madison Online student is assigned an academic and career (AC) advisor (https://online.wisc.edu/academic-career-coach/). The AC advisor will support the academic and personal success of each student by partnering with current Wisconsin School of Business advisors in the Wisconsin BBA Advising Center to assist students as they identify and clarify their educational goals, develop meaningful academic plans, and pursue their own Wisconsin Experience.

CAREERS
Active engagement in the career development process is a vital component of a student's personal growth in college and future success as a lifelong learner, professional, and global citizen. AC advisors help prepare students for life post-graduation through individual and group advising.
