

GLOBAL CULTURES, LANGUAGES, AND EDUCATION, CERTIFICATE

The Certificate in Global Cultures, Languages, and Education (GCLE) educates students about global cultural, sociolinguistic, literacy and language policy and planning perspectives.

The courses in the certificate explore key questions about the relationships among cultural diversity, social inequality, and language. They provide students with skills to work globally, within and beyond schools, in the field of culture, communication, and education.