ADVISING

Rachel Weiss is the advisor for the undergraduate majors and certificates in the Department of Asian Languages and Cultures, helping students explore the degree options, prepare for Study Abroad, and advance through their academic plan. Schedule an appointment with Rachel in Starfish (<https://wisc.starfishsolutions.com/starfish-ops/dl/instructor/serviceCatalog.html?bookmark=connection/10715/schedule>).

Students interested in this major have dedicated guidance from our full-time undergraduate advisor. Flexible advising sessions are conveniently available through the Starfish system, accommodating various time zones and student schedules to ensure every student receives the personalized support they need.

Talking with your academic advisor is very important; it can make the difference in getting the courses you want and meeting your graduation goals. Advisors help students plan how to complete more than one major or certificate. They also share more information about course content, which courses fit best with your interest areas, and what kinds of courses might work best with your learning style.

SUCCESSWORKS

SuccessWorks (<https://successworks.wisc.edu/>) at the College of Letters & Science helps you turn the academic skills learned in your classes into a fulfilling life, guiding you every step of the way to securing jobs, internships, or admission to graduate school.

Through one-on-one career advising, events, and resources, you can explore career options, build valuable internship and research experience, and connect with supportive alumni and employers who open doors of opportunity.
