

LAW AND HUMANITIES, CERTIFICATE

LEARNING OUTCOMES

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Examine the interplay between law and cultural expressions: Explain how law both shapes and is shaped by cultural narratives, social norms, philosophy, history, and artistic representations.
2. Apply critical methods of inquiry used in humanistic fields like literature, history, and philosophy to the analysis of legal topics.
3. Develop interdisciplinary arguments: Construct arguments that integrate legal reasoning with insights from the humanities, demonstrating an ability to navigate between different forms of analysis.
4. Interpret legal texts through humanistic lenses: Analyze legal texts such as statutes and judicial opinions using tools from literature, philosophy, history, and cultural studies.
5. Develop and communicate original ideas and arguments clearly and persuasively in both oral and written forms.