APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE, BLS

The Major in Applied Social Science (MASS) is completed with the Bachelor of Liberal Studies degree. The BLS and MASS are offered fully online and are ideal for returning students with some college credit. UW-Madison Online programs are designed with adult students in mind; they give students the flexibility to earn their degree while still meeting obligations at work and home.

Students in the MASS program will learn about how Social and Behavioral Science apply to their own lives and the world around them. BLS and MASS students will learn about world language study and global issues; understanding and engaging with diverse communities; ethical communication; and broader social issues that shape current events. Applied Social Sciences explores systematic and evidence-based study of the social world, encompassing all of the political, economic, legal, technological and cultural ideas, structures and processes that humans create to live together as a society. Social science data, methods, and theories help students understand how social life works to help social life work better.

Applied study across the social sciences, combined with integrated study of the liberal arts and sciences, is an ideal framework for identifying issues, questions, and opportunities that are important to humans, groups, institutions, and society. Students in this program will improve their skills as communicators, and as knowledgeable participants in a civil and just society. They will increase their skills and develop their abilities to create and support more effective and equitable solutions to social problems.

For more information, visit the UW-Madison Online admissions website or email a UW-Madison Online enrollment coach. They are here to help you navigate the application process.

HOW TO GET IN

Only students admitted to the BLS degree may declare this major. Students new to UW-Madison apply to the Bachelor of Liberal Studies program through UW-Madison Online (https://online.wisc.edu/apply/). UW-Madison Online undergraduate programs are for those applying as transfer students (i.e., those transferring at least 12 college credits). For more information, email a UW-Madison Online enrollment coach (uwmadison@online.wisc.edu).

Reentry students who have previously attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison may also be considered for the Bachelor of Liberal Studies. Reentry students considering applying should email a UW-Madison Online academic and career advisor (advisors@online.wisc.edu) for more information.

CURRENT STUDENTS

Students currently enrolled in an on-campus degree program are not eligible to transfer into this UW-Madison Online degree program or to combine this major with an in-person degree.

UNIVERSITY DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Total Degree
To receive a bachelor's degree from UW–Madison, students must earn a minimum of 120 degree credits. The requirements for some programs may exceed 120 degree credits. Students should consult with their college or department advisor for information on specific credit requirements.

Residency
Degree candidates are required to earn a minimum of 30 credits in residence at UW–Madison. "In residence" means on the UW–Madison campus with an undergraduate degree classification. "In residence" credit also includes UW–Madison courses offered in distance or online formats and credits earned in UW–Madison Study Abroad/Study Away programs.

Quality of Work
Undergraduate students must maintain the minimum grade point average specified by the school, college, or academic program to remain in good academic standing. Students whose academic performance drops below these minimum thresholds will be placed on academic probation.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Recognize, reason with, and combine multiple forms of qualitative and quantitative information and data that are common to the social sciences, from diverse perspectives and sources.
2. Critically evaluate and analyze information using a variety of methods common to the social sciences, informed by diverse perspectives.
3. Approach complex social, interpersonal, and institutional issues and opportunities for innovation from multiple perspectives, understanding them in a variety of contexts and from different cultural lenses.
4. Use tools and techniques common to the social sciences to combine their rigorous analysis of relevant evidence to develop and defend creative insights and effective solutions concerning these important issues.
5. Based on an understanding of the varied ways in which people experience social life and social institutions, students will collaborate and communicate proposed solutions effectively and ethically with people from a range of perspectives, cultures, and backgrounds.

FOUR-YEAR PLAN

This program is designed for transfer students, most of whom will enroll on a part-time basis. As such, there is not a four-year plan for this program. Please refer to the Requirements tab for more information about the curriculum and program plan.

ADVISING AND CAREERS

CAREERS
Completion of the BLS+MASS complements many career paths. Coursework designed around a liberal arts education provides students with critical thinking, qualitative and quantitative analysis, and communication skills needed in all industries. A focused study of social sciences helps graduates understand how:

- The social world can be understood and explored in a structured and guided way.
- The tools used in the study of the social world can help identify issues that need attention, and problems that could be solved.

Active engagement in the career development process is a vital component of a student's personal growth in college and future success as a lifelong learner, professional, and global citizen. AC advisors help prepare students for life post-graduation through individual and group advising.
