Explore the fundamentals of storytelling through the digital cinema production certificate. Certificate students complete coursework in screenwriting, producing, directing, cinematography and sound, editing, and related fields. They master the aesthetic and technical tools of moving-image storytelling, learn creative decision making, employ collaborative work skills, and apply industry standards. The digital cinema production certificate is relevant to undergraduates across campus who are considering careers in film, television, documentary, and internet-based media.

HOW TO GET IN

Prior to declaration, students must complete COM ARTS 355 for a grade of B or higher. In addition, students must earn a grade of B or higher in their first attempt of one of the following courses:

RESIDENCE & QUALITY OF WORK

- Minimum 2.000 GPA on all certificate courses.
- At least 7 certificate credits must be completed in residence.

CERTIFICATE COMPLETION REQUIREMENT

This undergraduate certificate must be completed concurrently with the student’s undergraduate degree. Students cannot delay degree completion to complete the certificate.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Demonstrate mastery of the aesthetic and technical tools of moving-image story telling.
2. Analyze story structure and illustrate how their creative decisions support their interpretation of story.
3. Employ collaborative work skills to perform in the role of leaders or members of production crews/groups.
4. Analyze the meaning, form, and process of cinematic work with the goal of providing honest, critical, and instructive feedback.
5. Reproduce and apply industry standard methods for media pre-production, production and post-production, and explain the rationale for these methods.

ADVISING AND CAREERS

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The Department of Communication Arts academic advisors (https://commarts.wisc.edu/undergraduate/advising/) serve as the advisors for the digital cinema production certificate. They can help you learn more about the certificate, discuss eligibility, declare, or review certificate requirements. Please see the Communication Arts website (https://commarts.wisc.edu/undergraduate/advising/) for advising options.

CAREER ADVISING

The communications, arts & entertainment career community advisor (https://careers.ls.wisc.edu/what-are-career-communities/communications-arts-and-entertainment/) assists students with career preparation, such as exploring career options, strategies for the internship/job search, and networking opportunities.

DIGITAL CINEMA PRODUCTION COURSES

The selection of courses varies by semester. Please check Course Search and Enroll for current offerings.

CAREER EXPLORATION AND PREPARATION

Gain Experience
The Department of Communication Arts encourages students to apply the knowledge and skills they attain through coursework to professional settings. Internships and part-time jobs at television networks, nonprofit organizations, talent agencies, magazines, radio stations, advertising agencies, production companies, government agencies, and other communication-related businesses help students gain work-related experience and explore career options. Emails and postings provide certificate students with information on opportunities across the country.

Attend Events
Throughout the academic year, students have the opportunity to participate in several communication-focused, career-related events, such as guest speakers, career panels, and the advertising and communications career fair.

Communication Arts Alumni Careers At a Glance
After completing a liberal arts education with a communication arts major, communication arts alumni pursue a variety of careers. In a recent survey, communication arts alumni were asked to provide and categorize their occupation. The results are available on the Department of Communication Arts website:

• Communication Science & Rhetorical Studies Alumni Careers (https://commarts.wisc.edu/undergraduate/careers/)
• Radio– Television–Film Alumni Careers (https://commarts.wisc.edu/undergraduate/careers/)

L&S CAREER RESOURCES
SuccessWorks at the College of Letters & Science helps students leverage the academic skills learned in their major, certificates, and liberal arts degree; explore and try out different career paths; participate in internships; prepare for the job search and/or graduate school applications; and network with professionals in the field (alumni and employers). In short, SuccessWorks helps students in the College of Letters & Science discover themselves, find opportunities, and develop the skills they need for success after graduation.

SuccessWorks can also assist students in career advising, résumé and cover letter writing, networking opportunities, and interview skills, as well as course offerings for undergraduates to begin their career exploration early in their undergraduate career.

Students should set up their profiles in Handshake (https://careers.ls.wisc.edu/handshake/) to take care of everything they need to explore career events, manage their campus interviews, and apply to jobs and internships from 200,000+ employers around the country.
