ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES MAJOR

ADVISING AND CAREERS

ADVISING AND CAREERS

The Environmental Studies major (https://nelson.wisc.edu/undergraduate/environmental-studies-major/) offers unique opportunities for undergraduate students to broaden their studies through interdisciplinary coursework related to the environment. See undergraduate advising (https://nelson.wisc.edu/undergraduate/advising/) for more information about declaring the major or certificate.

Environmental Studies students are represented in majors all across campus and in most undergraduate schools and colleges. Environmental studies majors should utilize the career office for their home school as appropriate.

STUDY ABROAD

Learning in Letters & Science emphasizes discovery, growth, understanding different perspectives, and challenging yourself, which makes studying abroad an excellent fit for many L&S students: studyabroad.wisc.edu (https://studyabroad.wisc.edu/)

As a university with global influence, we have more than 300 study abroad programs (https://studyabroad.wisc.edu/programs/) in over 80 countries. These vary in length, academic focus, teaching format, language requirements, cost, and level of independence. There are many programs to complement every major (https://studyabroad.wisc.edu/academics/major-advising-pages-maps/#L&S) and any year of college (including the final semester)—and all meet UW–Madison's high academic standards. Students admitted into Letters & Science can even choose a short program in the summer before they start college or their whole first year: studyabroad.wisc.edu/launch (http://studyabroad.wisc.edu/launch/). Talk with your academic advisor about how studying abroad might fit with your academic plan.
