

FRENCH, B.A.

The French program at UW–Madison offers students opportunities for cultural and literary learning about the French-speaking world through dynamic, in-class experiences and extracurricular components such as the French House, an immersion residence hall and cultural center, and the French Ambassador program, a student organization that engages students with French and Francophone cultural events in and around Madison.

Students intending to major in French or complete the certificate enter the program at the appropriate level depending on their language proficiency.

The majority of UW–Madison French majors or certificate students complete their requirements through a combination of courses taken on campus and abroad with a UW–Madison-sponsored program.

Students have the option to take a class for Honors at almost all levels. For more information, please see the department website and/or consult a department advisor.

For information on teacher training in French, see the School of Education (<http://guide.wisc.edu/undergraduate/education/>) section in the Guide.

For courses in French literature in translation, see the Literature in Translation (<http://guide.wisc.edu/courses/littrans/>) course listing.
