

SLAVIC STUDIES, CERTIFICATE

In the Slavic Studies Certificate, you have the opportunity to pair a strong language study of Russian, Polish, Czech, or Ukrainian with an contextual, integrative regional view to complement your studies in political science, international studies, business, history, or many other areas. Gain a critically informed appreciation and understanding of the complex, interwoven nature of the region's historical trajectories, politics, literature, and culture, with the flexibility to choose to focus on the area or culture of your special interest, or take a comparative approach to the region as a whole.

HOW TO GET IN

Students may declare the certificate by contacting the academic advisor.

Students declared in the Russian or Polish majors are not eligible to declare the Slavic certificate. Students declared in the Certificate in Russian, East European and Central Asian Studies at the Undergraduate Level are not eligible to declare the Slavic certificate.

L&S CAREER RESOURCES

Every L&S major opens a world of possibilities. SuccessWorks (<https://successworks.wisc.edu/>) at the College of Letters & Science helps students turn the academic skills learned in their major, certificates, and other coursework into fulfilling lives after graduation, whether that means jobs, public service, graduate school or other career pursuits.

In addition to providing basic support like resume reviews and interview practice, SuccessWorks offers ways to explore interests and build career skills from their very first semester/term at UW all the way through graduation and beyond.

Students can explore careers in one-on-one advising, try out different career paths, complete internships, prepare for the job search and/or graduate school applications, and connect with supportive alumni and even employers in the fields that inspire them.
