

HISTORY, B.A.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Find and interpret diverse evidence to explain complex changes over time
2. Communicate effectively to a variety of audiences in writing and speech
3. Use an understanding of many perspectives to work with people and solve complex problems
4. Seek to understand differing views and ways of being in the world
5. Identify the skills developed in the study of history and articulate their applicability to a variety of professional and intellectual endeavors