likely revise their own four-year plan several times during college. In order of their courses to accommodate these experiences. Students will study abroad, volunteer experiences, and/or work, they might adjust the order of their courses to accommodate these experiences. Students will become involved in athletics, honors, research, student organizations, and prepare them for the wide range of careers pursued by history majors: HISTORY 300 & HISTORY 301. History at Work: Professional Skills of the Major (HISTORY 300) connects students to History alumni in different fields and helps develop essential career skills related to the value of the major. History at Work: History Internship Seminar (HISTORY 301) allows students to receive credit toward their major requirements for work associated with an internship. HISTORY 600 Advanced Seminar in History may be taken at any point after a student has completed HISTORY 201 The Historian's Craft. History 600s are offered on a variety of topics every semester and... they provide students with the rich experience of a small, faculty-led seminar. They may be taken for credit more than once as long as the topics are different.

* Students must declare a major by the time they reach 86 credits.

 Please refer to the Requirements tab in Guide for College of Letters & Science Breadth and Degree Requirements as well as Residence and Quality of Work requirements for the major.