

INFORMATION SCIENCE, B.S.

HOW TO GET IN

To declare the information science major, student should set up an appointment with an information science major advisor prior to attaining senior standing (86 credits). It is recommended that students declare the major as early as possible to plan the required coursework. There are no specific courses that must be completed before declaration.