To declare the Molecular and Cell Biology major, students must make an appointment with the Molecular and Cell Biology student services coordinator through Starfish.

Students who intend to major in Molecular and Cell Biology may not combine this major ("double major") with the Biology or Biochemistry majors in either the College of Letters and Science or the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences (CALS).