

PUBLIC POLICY, CERTIFICATE

HOW TO GET IN

HOW TO GET IN

No application required. All students who meet the requirements listed below are eligible to declare. For information on how to declare, see Advising & Careers.

To declare the certificate in public policy through the La Follette School of Public Affairs, students must:

- Hold UW-Madison sophomore standing or above and be in good academic standing, according to the rules of your school or college
- Have taken, are enrolled, or are registered for at least one class that meets certificate requirements